1.10 Escalation Matrix

In case of unresolved issues, employees may escalate concerns through the following hierarchy:

1.11 Timesheets and Attendance

If you have any questions about logging your hours, timesheets, or attendance rules, you don't need to go through a formal process. Just reach out directly to Nikitha Sutraye.

1.12 General Workplace Issues (Leave, Pay, Rule Clarifications)

If you have a general complaint or issue at work, there is a three-step process to get it fixed:

- Step 1 (Your Manager): Tell your manager, Venkat Ramana, about the problem within 15 days of it happening. He has 10 days to look into it and give you an answer.
- Step 2 (Human Resources): If your manager doesn't solve the problem, takes too long, or if your complaint is actually about your manager, you can take it to the HR Team. You have 10 days to pass it on to them, and they have 10 days to give you a decision.
- Step 3 (The CEO): If HR still can't resolve it, or if your issue is with HR itself, your final step is to take it to the top boss, Mr. Vamsi Krishna (CEO).

1.13 Sexual Harassment (POSH)

Clyptus has a strict "Prevention of Sexual Harassment" (POSH) policy. If you experience or witness any sexual harassment, do not use the general 3-step process. Go straight to the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). The main person in charge of this is Ms. D. Keerthi Priya.
