PURPOSE OF POLICY

This policy provides a structured framework for employee time-off, ensuring a balance between personal well-being and organizational productivity. This policy aligns with applicable Indian labor laws, including the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (amended 2017) and the Shops & Establishments Act.

Administration: The HR Department owns and administers this policy.

Updates: The policy is subject to updates based on legal or business requirements.

SCOPE

This Policy applies to:

- All employees (full-time, part-time, fixed-term)
- Contractual staff (to the extent applicable)
- Interns, trainees, and article trainees
- Candidates during recruitment and selection processes
- Directors of the company

This policy also extends to employees deployed at client locations, working remotely, or in hybrid arrangements.

Probationary Eligibility: Employees currently on probation are eligible for 1.5 days of leave per month. The standard leave structures (EL, CL, SL) and associated benefits detailed below do not apply during the probationary period.

Upon successful completion of probation and formal confirmation, employees will transition to the standard leave structure detailed in this policy.

Client Location Rule: Employees deployed at client locations follow the client's holiday calendar and leave policy
